GERMANY RUSHING TROOPS INTO INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT OF RUHR

UNITED STATES TO ASK FRANCE HOW
FAR SHE INTENDS TO GO WITH OCCU-PATION OF RUHR DISTRICT

40,000 HUN TROOPS MOVE IN

PARIS, April 5.—Movement of German troops into the Ruhr district is continuing today, the French war office reported today. The foreign office reports show that up until seven o'clock last night a total of 40,000 Teuton troops had entered the neutral district. This is said to be about two thirds of the forces under General Von Watter concentrated to be used against the Westphalian Communists.

PARIS, April 5.—German and French occupation of the Ruhr district is not expected to occur until April 7th. This agreement is said to have been reached in a conference attended by Premier Millerand and Marshal Foch. To Foch is attributed the statement, "France does not intend to risk the possibility of a clash with armed forces."

BERLIN, April 5.—Radical uprisings in the Ruhr district are under better control today as a result of the wholesale plaining of troops through the district. The chief concern of the authorities today is what the French will do.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The United States expects to ask France how far she intends to go in handing the situation in the neutral territory of Germany. It has been reported that France intends to occupy Coblenz, Cologne and other cities. The French will be asked to state just how far her troops will go into Germany, for what purpose and how long they propose staying.

ASK $436 MILLIONS OF DOLLARS TO WIND UP FEDERAL CONTROL OF RAILWAYS

WASHINGTON, April 5.—An appropriation of $436,000,000 to wind up federal control of the railroads was asked of congress today by the Director of Finance of the Railroad Administration. If this appropriation is granted it will make a total of $1,886,000,000 voted out of public funds to run the railroads during the war and up to March 1st, 1920.

NAVAL RECRUITING OFFICER IS IN TOWN

Mate Weiss, the representative of Uncle Sam's Navy at Altoona, thru whose hands pass Clearfield county's husky near-sea-footed sons when they decide to "shore off" and seek the joys of "a life afloat" as representative of the most efficient navy sailing the high seas, is back in town for the week with headquarters at the Leona House.

Mate Weiss was over this way some time ago, cruising about in search of rearing timber and while forced to return to his home port to go into dry dock for the purpose of having a little extra "blime water" drawn off and the barnacles cleaned from the bottom and sides of his recruiting craft, a couple of able seamen from the "Williamsport fleet" was blown out of their course and put in here for a week, and attempted to round up a few sailors. The Mate is back today with his gun-boat to the muzzle and decks cleared for action, looking for the poachers who have retreated to their downriver base. Meanwhile any young man desiring to enlist in the navy will find opportunity to do so by calling at the Leona House.

Walking Snakes.
It is supposed that the early ancestors of modern snakes walked on four legs. Some big serpents such as the boa, even now have rudimentary hindlegs. But the "freak" on which all snakes do their walking is an evolutionary extremity of their ribs. To preserve these is the greatest difficulty in the preparation of an uphildian skeleton.

Veracity.
Veracity is a trait which must be regarded as including something more than the simple avoidance of direct falsehood.

Some Watchdog.
There is a watchdog in a New York town who ought to be placed on charity patrol. An obnoxious beggar there who had been tolerated by the residents because of his paralyzed condition, was caught stealing by the dog, chased six blocks and finally forced to climb a tree. One good thing about canine investigators into the reality of human suffering is that they are guided strictly by the facts in the case and are not troubled by any sentimentality.

Post Office Nerves.
According to the testimony of some hospital authorities, "post office nerves" are due partly to the frequent changes from day to night duty, with consequent irregularities of meals and sleep, partly to the changes of work whereby the same clerk may be standing all day for another, with diverse occupations, each needing special knowledge. Hence, in the opinion of some medical men, mechanical routine is less wearing than frequent change. Is it so?

Electric Screwdriver.
An electric screwdriver is said to be a great time-saver where any considerable part of the workman's time is taken up in driving screws. In the construction of the tool a friction clutch with a spring release is provided, so that when the pressure is released the driving bit does not revolve, but the motor continues in operation.

Youth and Old Age.
I have a theory that old age is in better touch with youth than middle age. The grannies and granddads of all time are evidence. Through a beautiful foresight of nature the old folk are living their young days over again in memory, and yet have lived long enough to see that if youth is full of joyance and age of care, the care is a matter of no great account, while the joyance was the rich reward of life. Robert M. Gray in the Atlantic.

A True Sport.
Women have been accused of lack of sportsmanship; yet was a woman ever known to beat a competitor when it was down?

HOOVER AGAINST THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT

Will Accept Nomination For President Only From Republican Party Electors

EXPLAINS WAR TIME ACTS

NEW YORK, April 3.—Herbert Hoover, as an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination for President, today assumed the direction of the activities in his behalf. In a statement made by him today, to be sent to all the Hoover Republican clubs throughout the country, Mr. Hoover suggests how those activities should be carried on.

The former food administrator declared in effect:

That he is a Republican, although he cannot claim "years of demonstrated work with mechanical politicians."

That he would not accept a nomination from the Democratic party or an independent agency.

That he had no apologies to offer for support of President Wilson while connected with his administration (reference being to his letter endorsing the President's plea for the election of a Democratic Congress.)

That he does not wish his friends to enter him as a candidate in any presidential primaries, but prefers they spread their views "to the country and the delegates already named."

That while money, of course, must be expended in that work, he hopes the clubs will confine themselves to small amounts and be prepared to open the books for inspection.

That he will be unable to make a personal canvass because of his duties in European relief work.

Mr. Hoover meets the criticisms that he is not a party man by saying he believes in teamwork and that a primary sense of such an idea would preclude his permitting his name to be presented for favor by other parties.

That statement unquestionably disposes in the negative of the question as to whether Mr. Hoover would permit his name to be entered for the presidential preference in the Pennsylvania primaries.

Text of Statement

"I shall be unable to take part in a personal canvass, as my administrative obligations to several organizations engaged in the starvation relief in Europe are such, until their next harvest, that I can give little time to any other matters."

"Having refused to allow my name to be put into the primaries hitherto at every place where I have been consulted, so far as I know it has only been done in the states of California and Michigan and in one solitary district outside. As there is little organization on my behalf, except the clubs that have sprung up spontaneously over the country, and as most of the primaries are closed, and at this late date no organization is possible that could compete with other organizations, I do not consider my friends will find any advantage in that direction in other primaries. Those who think I should be nominated will, I believe, find their energies better applied to promotion of their views to the country and the delegates already named, with full respect to their prior pledges."

"I had no expectation that my entrance into that station would be welcomed by the type of person who conceives that fitness for office, patriotism and citizenship depend upon placing sheer partisanship above national interest or the requires years of demonstrated participation in work with mechanical politicians. I cannot assist those people with explanations trying to prove that I belong to their class."

"Some people of that sort feel great trouble of mind that in a letter addressed to a friend last year I expressed my faith at the then growing partisanship and pressed the need for unity of action between the legislative and executive branches of the government while we were still faced with the problems of war. It was obviously my duty as an important war official to support the President without thought of any political interest to myself from the day I entered the administration until I left it and I put no qualifications upon or apologies for loyalty to one's chief in office.

Forbids Campaign of Detraction
"On the second point of their anxiety, I make no pretension to a great record of partisan activity. I at once admit that my political interest was confined to membership in a prominent Republican club and allegiance to the party over years, but I earned my living in one of those professions that require so intermittent a shift of residence from my home base as to preclude my taking such a part as I should have liked in the privilege of every citizen at the polls."

"At least no one can find political expediency in these things, so that to all those voters who believe that these things comprise the basis of choice before the party convention I wish it said at once that I make no pretense to come within the limits of their requirements."

"The purpose of the political parties, as I see them, is to organize teamwork for the advancement and consummation of their views, on the issues and measures that are before us and the securing of men in public office who will give execution to these issues and measures. Therefore, I trust, first that the men and women who do me the great honor to advocate my name will bear in mind that personal criticism of the other names before the party are chiefly of service to the opposition. All these men are patriotic, honorable Americans. They have all served the country well and are entitled to respect; second I trust I shall not be further embarrassed by suggestion of some independent of alternative placing my name before any other party, for a primary sense of teamwork in any party organization would preclude such a possibility."

"I presume that the various clubs that have been formed over the country will need to expend a certain amount of money on printing and other incidentals, but I trust that each and every one of them will confine itself to minor subscriptions and minor expenditures and will be prepared to open its books to public inspection."

So far Major Gen. Leonard Wood has 57 delegates pledged to him; Gov. Frank O. Lowden has 12 and Senator Hiram Johnson has two. According to the claims and admissions of campaign managers the unstructured campaign managers the unstructured make the complete lineup to date:

COLLEGE BOYS ENLIVEN CHURCH SERVICE

A sextette of college fellows sang at the Epworth League service of Trinity Methodist church last night. The singers were Al. Kennard, Harold Knight, Kenneth Thorn, Way Powell, Harold Boulton and Richard Kennard Jr. They gave some fine music and inspired everyone present to get into the spirit of song. The leader of the service was Wendell Woodside, who gave a fine address on the Easter topic.

The head of the program committee is Howard Stewart, who never fails to have something of interest on hand for this live young people's organization.

PRESENT WEEK TO GIVE LINE ON PRESIDENCY

Many States To Hold Primary
Elections Which Will Show
Strength of Aspirants

MICHIGANDERS VOTE TODAY

NEW YORK, April 5.—This week will be the most important of the pre-convention campaign to date, according to political observers, who expect for the first time to get a definite line on the present comparative strength of the various candidates for the presidential nomination of both major parties.

The Republicans will hold state primaries and conventions as follows:
Monday — Michigan preferential primaries (30 delegates); Rhode Island convention (10 delegates)

Tuesday — Wisconsin preferential and direct primaries (28 delegates); New York direct primaries (85 delegates)

Wednesday — Georgia convention (17 delegates).

Democratic primaries and conventions include:

Monday — Michigan primary (30 delegates)

Tuesday — New York primary (90 delegates); Wisconsin primary (28 delegates); Philippine islands convention (6 delegates)

Thursday — North Carolina convention (24 delegates)

There are thus 173 Republican and 176 Democratic delegates involved. Of course many of these will be unpledged, but there are obvious means of determining the preferences of unpledged delegates if any exist.

Wood Delegates Lead
So far Major Gen. Leonard Wood has 57 delegates pledged to him; Gov. Frank O. Lowden has 12 and Senator Hiram Johnson has two. According to the claims and admissions of campaign managers the unstructured campaign managers the unstructured make the complete lineup to date:

Wood, 91; Lowden, 87; Judge Pritchard of North Carolina, 22; Gov. Allen of Kansas, 20, and Johnson, 2. The Democratic lineup is far less comprehensive. It shows:

Instructed delegates—Senator Robert Owen of Oklahoma, 20; William J. Bryan, 10; James W. Gerard, 10; Herbert Hoover, 3.

Uninstructed delegates—Arizona 6; Iowa, 26; Maine, 12; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 5.

Of these unpledged delegates no one has undertaken to forecast their preferences with any degree of accuracy. Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, however, is generally conceded to have the advantage in Maine and Nevada, giving him 18 possible delegates.

Michigan Vote Important

William G. McAdoo is thought to have a good chance for Arizona's six. But, so far as the Democrats are concerned, there appears to be nothing definite to date concerning any of their unpledged delegates inclinations. How important the candidates themselves regard the Michigan primaries is shown by the intensive campaigns conducted there by them and their organizations. Michigan is looked upon as one of the pre-convention "pivotal" states. There are seven names on the Republican, five on the Democratic and one on the Socialist ticket. Hoover is on both the Republican and Democratic ballots.

New York has been the big enigma this year as regards both Republican and Democratic nominees. It is the one state where no candidate's organization is making claims in a very loud voice. The Wood people appear to be the most confident. Johnson is concentrating in a few cities, particularly the metropolis, and his backers say they will be satisfied if he makes a good showing in New York City, as it would be indicative of his disputed strength in the east.

New York is now McAdoo's home state and Palmer is well known here through his activities as alien property custodian, but prohibition appears to be a big issue for the Democrats in New York—as shown by

Five Hundred Arrests Made By Authorities Since Yesterday, is Statement From Dublin

TROOPS THROWN AROUND CITIES

DUBLIN, April 5.—Over five hundred Sinn Feiners have been arrested in a new series of raids by police and military, following the Easter uprising, according to estimates furnished by Dublin Castle. Virtually all of the south of Ireland is under martial law. Cordons of troops have been thrown around Derry, Dublin, Cork, Limerick and other cities, while two British warships are laying in Kingston Harbor, just a few miles from Dublin. The north of Ireland is cut off completely from telegraph or telephone communication. In the west of Ireland chaos reigns. In one instance a band of seventeen hundred men marched through the community, confiscating over one thousand acres of land and parcelling out the farms and property. Owners were driven from their homes. The property damage resulting from the Easter uprising is estimated at $500,000 and it is said that the tax payers will be forced to pay this loss.

LONDON, April 4.—The Sinn Fein plan to destroy all Government records and put the Irish administration into confusion was put into operation last night when fires were started in official buildings all over Ireland.

At a late hour tonight this summary of the week end havoc throughout Ireland was given:
Sixty-one police stations were destroyed and 21 revenue offices raided and their contents burned.

Belfast was isolated from the rest of the world. The land wires and cables to England were cut off and the only means of communication was the telephone.

The Grand Central hotel, in which are located the labor and other departments and the Bank of Ireland, was entered during the night and a large number of documents were destroyed. The raiders then tried to burn buildings, but a fire brigade prevented this.

Three separate blazes were found in the income tax offices. The city postoffices and public buildings were under strong guard today. Dispatches this evening stated the city is calm and the authorities now have the situation in hand.

Attempts also were made to set

MICHIGAN AND DELAWARE VIE WITH EACH OTHER IN POLITICAL WORLD

NEW YORK CITY, April 5.—While the one political eye is turned on Michigan today the other is anxiously cast towards Delaware. In Michigan it is expected that the strength of the various presidential candidates will be shown by popular preference. In Delaware the woman suffrage battle goes on unabated and a commanding as much national interest as a presidential contest. While the Michigan result and the Delaware situation are entirely unrelated they are equally important. First, the primary in Michigan will afford the first comprehensive comparison of candidates for the presidency of both major parties. Second, the final vote in Delaware on suffrage expected this week will show whether seventeen million women voters under state suffrage or about twenty seven million voters under federal suffrage will participate in the selection of a president this fall. Delaware is a normally Republican state and if the state fails to ratify the suffrage amendment party leaders fear its effect on the women voters in suffrage states. Women are voting in Michigan today and will vote in Wisconsin and New York tomorrow.

LANSING, Mich., April 5.—Michigan voters were to signify their choices for the presidential nominations in a state-wide preference primary today.

All of the important Republican candidates for the nomination except Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, qualified for places on the ballot. The Republican candidates are: Hiram Johnson, California; Frank O. Lowden, Illinois; John J. Pershing, Nebraska; Leonard Wood, New Hampshire; Herbert C. Hoover, California; Miles F. Poindexter, Washington; William G. Simpson, Pennsylvania. Wood and Lowden have both been conducting active campaigns in the state.

The Democratic candidates are: William Jennings Bryan, Nebraska; Edward I. Edwards, New Jersey; A. Mitchell Palmer, New York; William Gibbs McAdoo, New York; Herbert C. Hoover, California.

Eugene V. Debs is the only Socialist candidate.

He was elected in the neighboring state on a "wet" platform, thus incurring the open enmity of Bryan.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says: "he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble."

Codfish Had Swallowed Watch.
The fishing smack Hookeganusnet, Captain Skidmore of Essex, Conn., had, among several interesting marine relics, a lady's gold watch taken from the stomach of a codfish near the reef off Nantucket, Mass. It is in a perfect state of preservation, with the hands marking 12:15 o'clock.—The New England Fish-eries.

CONSTITUTIONAL HEARINGS ARE AGAIN UNDERWAY

HARRISBURG, April 5. (United Press.)—The Pennsylvania Commission on Constitutional Revision and Amendment will reconvene here tomorrow. The Commission adjourned in February after completing the tentative draft of the new Constitution. During the adjournment printed copies of the tentative draft were sent to every member of the bar, large corporations, the press and others interested. These were studied preliminarily to the public hearings on the Commission's work which will be commenced tomorrow.

Any interested person may appear either in person or in writing to express his or her views. Under the plan of William Draper Lewis, secretary of the Commission, two sessions will be held tomorrow, three on Wednesday and one on Thursday. It is the consensus of opinion among the members that the entire work of the commission—that of redrafting the constitution after the public hearings into shape for presentation to the next legislature—will be finished before the summer months set in.

The hearings this week will be devoted each day to certain articles of the present constitution. Closely allied sections will also be discussed as they progress. This week they will be devoted chiefly to municipal articles. John Ihlder, of the Philadelphia Housing Association, will speak before the commission tomorrow on housing improvement and Director William S. Twining, also of Philadelphia, will speak on the financial provisions of the municipal article and home rule question. In the evening A. Leo Weil of the Voters' League, Pittsburgh, will be the principal speaker.

On Wednesday the discussion will be on the consolidation of city and county governments. Among the speakers who have signified their intention of speaking on this subject are Frederick J. Gruenberg and Thomas Raeburn White of Philadelphia. In the afternoon a representative of the Scranton Board of Trade will speak on mine caves and in the evening C. G. Hong, Philadelphia, will speak on proportional representation.

The second week's sessions will be devoted to judiciary and educational articles.

No limit will be placed on the length of talks before the Commission, but it is the belief of the members that none will be lengthy. Should a speaker bring forth points of law that should go into the constitution and which were overlooked in the tentative draft, they will soon find favor in the commission members and should he be wrong in his views, they he will quickly be shown where he is wrong by a member of the Commission, and therefore the length of the talks will be cut to a minimum, a member of the Commission said today.

About the Swingknife.
A swingknife is a wooden sword, 18 to 24 inches long and 8 to 10 inches broad, used to scrape the woody portion from flax, a handful of which hangs over a groove in the standing board known as the swingstock. Swingknives are still used in the manufacture of flax in parts of the Old World, but modern machinery has pretty generally displaced them.

It was ten time and Elly came to the table with soiled hands. Mother immediately told him to leave the table. "Why," said she, "you must be washed. I wouldn't think of letting you touch a piece of bread with such hands." The child made no attempt to leave. He evidently concluded he could remain just as he was, for he said: "O, that's all right, mamma; that's all right. I didn't want bread anyway."

The Aftermath of Flu

This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vicks' Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Your doctor will impress upon you that following recovery from the active stage of influenza, there often remains an inflamed, congested condition of the air passages—throat, larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.

Frequently the cough hangs on—soreness of the chest persists—you take cold easily and there may be obstinate catarrh. This condition is slow to clear up and if neglected may favor the development of pneumonia, or later on, serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should continue under the care of their physician—should exercise moderately in the open air—eat plenty of wholesome food—avoid overwork and sudden chills.

Nightly applications of Vicks' Vapo-Rub may help nature to complete the process of repair. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vicks Chemical Company, 231 Broad Street, Greenboro, N. C.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The juvenile pupils who attended Sabbath school yesterday were made happy by receiving an Easter egg in token of their steady attendance during the year. Some members of the 'teen department were also remembered and came in for an egg. Rev. Collins preached his first sermon to his congregation here, and from what we can glean from those who heard his discourse, all seemed satisfied that the conference had chosen well and sent the right man to the right charge. Owing to the illness of Rev. Fletcher Biddle and family the new minister has not been able to get possession of the parsonage, as the condition of Mrs. Biddle has been of such a character as it was deemed advisable not to remove her until she was in a better physical condition for the trip to her new home at Renovo. The new man, however, will remain in town until he can move his household goods into the parsonage and take up housekeeping.

Squire James A. Caldwell, who has been making his home with a daughter at Tyrone this winter, came to Curwensville last Friday in order to spend Easter day with his son, Merritt A. Caldwell and his granddaughter, Mrs. Richard Lantz. Of course the Squire who loves children as he loves to play a social game of "cinch," did not forget to come loaded with Easter offerings for his great grandchild at the Lantz home.

Merchants tell us that their Easter trade this season far exceeded that of any Easter season for the ten years past. They all had a variety of stock, ranging from a candy egg up to real live bunnies, and the prices were not excessive either.

Some twenty-five or thirty Curwensville young people who are attending colleges and other schools in different parts of the state, were about all home spending their Easter vacation with their parents and friends.

Eggs are still slowly going down the ladder of scale price. Saturday eggs were offered on the streets at 49 cents per dozen and did not find ready sale at that. A little over a week ago this meat fruit was soaring around 65 cents per dozen. One fellow, who could not see the policy for cheaper eggs, lugged a large tin full around town nearly all day asking 30 cents for the same and swore before he would take less he would lug them back home, a distance of about five miles. He was as good as his word and his cargo of hen fruit returned home with him.

Considerable progress was made toward excavating for the walls of the new blouse factory last week. The average run of wages will be paid to both laborer and mechanic. Those who have the construction of the building in charge, believe that within the next three months they will be able to turn the building over to those who are to occupy it.

If Curwensville people are determined to have a Community Home why not purchase the Park hotel, which can be purchased and refitted for that purpose at a far less cost than it would be to purchase a site and build a building from the ground up? The Park is centrally located, has grounds for lawn tennis, lots of room for croquet and swimming pool and a large garage, to say nothing of ample room in the inside of the building for everything that is necessary to make up a Community Home. Or better still tackle the "Pee-Wee's nest" proposition and convert it into a first class amusement park.

The Messrs. Leather Brothers, who own considerable real estate in Curwensville borough and close vicinity, have come forward and believing that the town now has an industrial future far superior to anything heretofore attempted, have offered to donate to the Industrial and Community Association five town lots, located at the upper end of Ridge avenue. There are a half dozen other men who are offering town lots for sale, and according to the thinking of a good many of the town's citizens, it would be a good proposition if they would follow in the footsteps of the Leather brothers. It would not only facilitate the sale of their other lands adjacent to the borough line, but would have a tendency of starting a building boom along the line of tenement houses. More dwellings house-see is what Curwensville wants now more than anything else. We cannot expect industries to come into the town and locate unless there are some provisions made for taking care of the people who come here to work in them. It was printed in the home paper some weeks ago that a realty company had been formed by local capital and that the erection of houses would be commenced at once. There has been no stir made in that direction as yet so far as we are able to discover.

Illini tribe of Red Men elected last Wednesday evening a full corps of competent men from their ranks to fill the official chairs of that lodge during the ensuing term. The raising of the chiefs will take place on Wednesday evening of this week, when the Progress will give a full account.

Becoming a sailor in the navy of the United States did not appeal very strongly to the Curwensville youths or young men, as the recruiting officer who spent several days in town last week failed to secure one single applicant.

TRINITY METHODISTS HAD SPLENDID EASTER SERVICES

The large congregation at Trinity church yesterday morning enjoyed one of the finest services the church has had in years. The choir rendered a fine program of music. The sermon presented the resurrection as fundamental in the Christian faith. The decorations consisted of a profusion of ferns and Easter flowers tastefully arranged.

The closing moments were very impressive as a splendid group of people were received into the fellowship of the church, welcomed by the pastor and members of the official board.

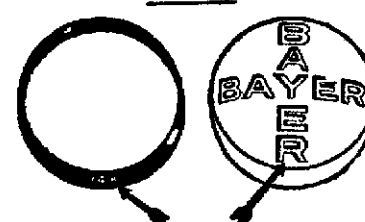

At the evening service the Easter Cantata entitled "The New Life" was given by the choir, the soloists being Mrs. Hursh Johnson, Albert Kennard and L. W. Lawrence. A beautiful piece of music, finely rendered, was the verdict of a delighted congregation.

"Don't Forget Your Umbrellas!"

"It was a rainy morning, and most of the Schoolmaster's fellow-passengers, including his seat-mate, had umbrellas. As the train pulled into the Grand Central Terminal, the trainman called, 'Don't forget your umbrellas!'"

"The Schoolmaster doesn't know whether the trainman called this thoughtful admonition on his own initiative, or whether he was acting on company instructions, but he does know that his seat-mate turned to him, and with a pleased smile exclaimed, 'I like to travel on this New York Central!'"

—PRINTER'S INK.

THAT is the kind of man we seek to have represent us in our dealings with the public. That is the kind of service we strive always to give the public—service with a human quality; service in which no detail is too small to be considered, no problem too great to be solved when the solution will add to the safety, comfort and convenience of our passengers.

Good service in the end becomes a problem of personnel. We are proud of our men, from the bottom to the top of the list. We pick them judiciously, train them carefully, advance them for merit and experience, trying always to have the big man in the important job and the right men everywhere. Only thus can we give the sort of railroad service the public desires us to give.

SULPHUR CLEARS

ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

"LISTEN LESTER" AT THE DRIGGS THEATRE

Coming to the Driggs next Thursday evening is "Listen Lester," a musical comedy which Mr. John Cort is presenting with the entire New York cast, chorus, production and special company orchestra, by Harry L. Cort, George E. Stoddard and Harold Orlob. This production forms a happy combination of a rocking kind calculated to catch the public fancy. That it will also hold the fancy is proven by the fact that this play ran for an entire year at the Knickerbocker Theatre in New York.

The action takes place at Palm Beach, Florida, where Colonel Dodge has gone accompanied by his daughter Mary, to escape from a woman whom he had been courting in New York and who now threatens him with a breach of promise suit if he does not pay her heart balm. At the same hotel is a Mrs. Mumm, and while waiting the arrival of Jack, her young fiancée, she falls in love with the Colonel, who reciprocates her affections.

There is a flip hotel clerk, a decidedly fresh porter named Lester, a female detective, a package of letters and all sorts of complications that comprise the real story and which are straightened out finally in a satisfactory manner.

Mr. Cort has retained the entire New York cast of funmakers for this attraction which includes Mayme Gehue, Jean Thomas, Virginia Watson, Luella Davis, Cecil Williams, Florence DeBarre, Frances Anderson, Florida Bellaire, Irving Brokes, Joseph Mack, Bert Gardner, Gus Shy, John L. Lyons, Murray Hart, Mark Thompson, Andrew Leigh, all adding to the general gaiety, and brings to Clearfield the damiest, danciest chorus ever seen on any stage.

The score contains song hits that are being whistled and hummed universally, the customing is effective and the staging artistic in every detail.

FIGHTING BROTHER-LOVE
DEFIES FINANCIAL RUIN
TO SAVE NAME OF DEAD

Brotherly love, as the powerful force that sends a father to an early grave and controls the destinies of a prominent New York family is one of the appealing elements in "Her Kingdom of Dreams," starring Anita Stewart and which will be seen at the Driggs theatre, commencing Tuesday.

Greatest Cast Ever Assembled

Probably the greatest cast ever assembled for a motion picture was placed under the direction of Marshall Neilan for the production of this picture. Among the stars included are: Anna Q. Nilsson, Kathryn Williams, Tully Marshall, Mahlon Hamilton, Thomas Santachi, Spottiswood Aitken, Wesley Barry, Ralph Graves, Thomas Jefferson, James Neill and Edwin Stevens.

As Judith Rutledge, Miss Stewart plays the role of a country girl who has idealized the life and surroundings of the large cities. As a stenographer she is involved in the family affairs of her employer, the wealthy Mr. Warren, whose death results from a violent argument with his son Fred. On his deathbed the elder Warren makes a final request that his son marry Judith.

Their marriage is followed by a series of business and domestic misunderstandings which cram the picture with unusually interesting situations.

Tribute to Great American.

Carlyle and a friend were walking a street in London many years ago, and suddenly Carlyle gripped his friend's arm and said: "Who is that man that passed?" And the friend replied: "That is Daniel Webster of Massachusetts." And Carlyle said: "He looks like a walking cathedral."

CLEARFIELD GIRL IN MAY DAY FETE

Miss Betty Weaver, of Clearfield, will take an important part in the May Day fete to be given by the undergraduates of Bryn Mawr on May 7 and 8 for the benefit of the college
$2,000,000 endowment. She will take the part of Flute in a "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

This is the fifth of the old English festivals which Bryn Mawr has made so distinctly its own. It was first given in 1900.

May Day is an event to which Bryn Mawr women and their friends go from all over the country. Special cars are run from Chicago and New York and other large cities, and for two days the college is a picturesque place with its many quaint costumes, and hundreds of spectators. Its old Gothic architecture makes it an unusually fitting place for such a revel, which is by far the largest and most successful of its kind.

The festival this year will include a pageant, May-Pole dances, old English country and Morris dances, six
Elizabethan plays and two masques.
It is run almost entirely by the undergraduates.

"Beckoning Roads" is based on
"The Call of Life" by Jeanne Judson, which appeared in the Red Book Magazine as a serial. It tells the story of Marquita Shay, a girl of the Canadian Northwest, who is pushed into the swift hard battle of New York life, after a heart-breaking series of unhappy episodes which greets her arrival in America. How she plays a master hand against the man who caused her unhappiness is en-tainingly told in this vivid picture of modern American life.

Niles Welch plays opposite Miss Barriscale. Joseph Downing has the part of a Wall Street swindler, and Gloria Holt, a child actress, has an important role. Howard Hickman directed the picture.

The Hangar.

Many people think that the airplane word "hangar" is an affection and is the late adaption of a French

Thackeray uses the word and that it means a shed, not primarily a place to hang a dirigible.—Hartford Con-

GERMANY RUSHING TROOPS INTO INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT OF RUHR

UNITED STATES TO ASK FRANCE HOW
FAR SHE INTENDS TO GO WITH OCCU-PATION OF RUHR DISTRICT

40,000 HUN TROOPS MOVE IN

PARIS, April 5.—Movement of German troops into the Ruhr district is continuing today, the French war office reported today. The foreign office reports show that up until seven o'clock last night a total of 40,000 Teuton troops had entered the neutral district. This is said to be about two thirds of the forces under General Von Watter concentrated to be used against the Westphalian Communists.

PARIS, April 5.—German and French occupation of the Ruhr district is not expected to occur until April 7th. This agreement is said to have been reached in a conference attended by Premier Millerand and Marshal Foch. To Foch is attributed the statement, "France does not intend to risk the possibility of a clash with armed forces."

BERLIN, April 5.—Radical uprisings in the Ruhr district are under better control today as a result of the wholesale slaughtering of troops throughout the district. The chief concern of the authorities today is what the French will do.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The United States expects to ask France how far she intends to go in handing the situation in the neutral territory of Germany. It has been reported that France intends to occupy Coblenz, Cologne and other cities. The French will be asked to state just how far her troops will go into Germany, for what purpose and how long they propose staying.

ASK $436 MILLIONS OF DOLLARS TO WIND UP FEDERAL CONTROL OF RAILWAYS

WASHINGTON, April 5.—An appropriation of $436,000,000 to wind up federal control of the railroads was asked of congress today by the Director of Finance of the Railroad Administration. If this appropriation is granted it will make a total of $1,886,000,000 voted out of public funds to run the railroads during the war and up to March 1st, 1920.

NAVAL RECRUITING OFFICER IS IN TOWN

Mate Weiss, the representative of Uncle Sam's Navy at Altoona, thru whose hands pass Clearfield county's husky near-wood-fetched sons when they decide to "shore off" and seek the joys of "a life afloat" as representative of the most efficient navy sailing the high seas, is back in town for the week with headquarters at the Leonard House.

Mate Weiss was over this way some time ago, cruising about in search of rearing timber and while forced to return to his home port to go into dry dock for the purpose of having a little extra "blime water" drawn off and the barnacles cleaned from the bottom and sides of his recruiting craft, a couple of able seamen from the "Williamsport fleet" was blown out of their course and put in here for a week, and attempted to round up a few sailors. The Mate is back today with his gun-loaded to the muzzle and decks cleared for action, looking for the poachers who have ventured to their downriver base. Meanwhile any young man desiring to enlist in the navy will find opportunity to do so by calling at the Leonard House.

Walking Snakes.
It is supposed that the early ancestors of modern snakes walked on four legs. Some big serpents such as the anaconda, even now have rudimentary hindlegs. But the "freak" on which all snakes do their walking is an evolutionary extremity of their ribs. To preserve these is the greatest difficulty in the preparation of an upland bird skeleton.

Veracity.
Veracity is a virtue which must be regarded as including something more than the simple avoidance of direct falsehood.

Some Watchdog.
There is a watchdog in a New York town who ought to be placed on charity patrol. An obnoxious beggar there who had been tolerated by the residents because of his paralyzed condition, was caught stealing by the dog, chased six blocks and finally forced to climb a tree. One good thing about canine investigators into the reality of human suffering is that they are guided strictly by the facts in the case and are not troubled by any sentimentality.

Post Office Nerves.
According to the testimony of some hospital authorities, "post office nerves" are due partly to the frequent changes from day to night duty, with consequent irregularities of meals and sleep, partly to the changes of work whereby the same clerk may be standing all day for another, with diverse occupations, each needing special knowledge. Hence, in the opinion of some medical men, mechanical routine is less wearing than frequent change. Is it so?

Electric Screwdriver.
An electric screwdriver is said to be a great time-saver where any considerable part of the workman's time is taken up in driving screws. In the construction of the tool a friction clutch with a spring release is provided, so that when the pressure is released the driving bit does not revolve, but the motor continues in operation.

Youth and Old Age.
I have a theory that old age is in better touch with youth than middle age. The grannies and granddads of all time are evidence. Through a beautiful foresight of nature the old folk are living their young days over again in memory, and yet have lived long enough to see that if youth is full of joyance and age of care, the care is a matter of no great account, while the joyance was the rich reward of life. HOOVER AGAINST THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT

Will Accept Nomination For President Only From Republican Party Electors

EXPLAINS WAR TIME ACTS

NEW YORK, April 3.—Herbert Hoover, as an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination for President, today assumed the direction of the activities in his behalf. In a statement made by him today, to be sent to all the Hoover Republican clubs throughout the country, Mr. Hoover suggests how those activities should be carried on.

The former food administrator declared in effect:

That he is a Republican, although he cannot claim "years of demonstrated work with mechanical politicians."

That he would not accept a nomination from the Democratic party or an independent agency.

That he had no apologies to offer for support of President Wilson while connected with his administration (reference being to his letter endorsing the President's plea for the election of a Democratic Congress.)

That he does not wish his friends to enter him as a candidate in any presidential primaries, but prefers they spread their views "to the country and the delegates already named."

That while money, of course, must be expended in that work, he hopes the clubs will confine themselves to small amounts and be prepared to open the books for inspection.

That he will be unable to make a personal canvass because of his duties in European relief work.

Mr. Hoover meets the criticisms that he is not a party man by saying he believes in teamwork and that a primary sense of such an idea would preclude his permitting his name to be presented for favor by other parties.

That statement unquestionably disposes in the negative of the question as to whether Mr. Hoover would permit his name to be entered for the presidential preference in the Pennsylvania primaries.

Text of Statement

"I shall be unable to take part in a personal canvass, as my administrative obligations to several organizations engaged in the starvation relief in Europe are such, until their next harvest, that I can give little time to any other matters."

"Having refused to allow my name to be put into the primaries hitherto at every place where I have been consulted, so far as I know it has only been done in the states of California and Michigan and in one solitary district outside. As there is little organization on my behalf, except the clubs that have sprung up spontaneously over the country, and as most of the primaries are closed, and at this late date no organization is possible that could compete with other organizations, I do not consider my friends will find any advantage in that direction in other primaries. Those who think I should be nominated will, I believe, find their energies better applied to promotion of their views to the country and the delegates already named, with full respect to their priorities."

"I had no expectation that my entrance into that station would be welcomed by the type of person who conceives that fitness for office, patriotism and citizenship depend upon placing sheer partisanship above national interest or the requires years of demonstrated participation in work with mechanical politicians. I cannot assist those people with explanations trying to prove that I belong to their class."

"Some people of that sort feel great trouble of mind that in a letter addressed to a friend last year I expressed my faith at the then growing partisanship and pressed the need for unity of action between the legislative and executive branches of the government while we were still faced with the problems of war. It was obviously my duty as an important war official to support the President without thought of any political interest to myself from the day I entered the administration until I left it and I put no qualifications upon or apologies for loyalty to one's chief in office.

Forbids Campaign of Detraction
"On the second point of their anxiety, I make no pretension to a great record of partisan activity. I at once admit that my political interest was confined to membership in a prominent Republican club and allegiance to the party over years, but I earned my living in one of those professions that require so intermittent a shift of residence from my home base as to preclude my taking such a part as I should have liked in the privilege of every citizen at the polls."

"At least no one can find political expediency in these things, so that to all those voters who believe that these things comprise the basis of choice before the party convention I wish it said at once that I make no pretense to come within the limits of their requirements."

"The purpose of the political parties, as I see them, is to organize teamwork for the advancement and consummation of their views, on the issues and measures that are before us and the securing of men in public office who will give execution to these issues and measures. Therefore, I trust, first that the men and women who do me the great honor to advocate my name will bear in mind that personal criticism of the other names before the party are chiefly of service to the opposition. All these men are patriotic, honorable Americans. They have all served the country well and are entitled to respect; second I trust I shall not be further embarrassed by suggestion of some independent of alternative placing my name before any other party, for a primary sense of teamwork in any party organization would preclude such a possibility."

"I presume that the various clubs that have been formed over the country will need to expend a certain amount of money on printing and other incidentals, but I trust that each and every one of them will confine itself to minor subscriptions and minor expenditures and will be prepared to open its books to public inspection."

Wood Delegates Lead
So far Major Gen. Leonard Wood has 57 delegates pledged to him; Gov. Frank O. Lowden has 12 and Senator Hiram Johnson has two. According to the claims and admissions of campaign managers the unstructured campaign managers the unstructured make the complete lineup to date:

COLLEGE BOYS ENLIVEN CHURCH SERVICE

A sextette of college fellows sang at the Epworth League service of Trinity Methodist church last night. The singers were Al. The leader of the service was Wendell Woodside, who gave a fine address on the Easter topic.

PRESENT WEEK TO GIVE LINE ON PRESIDENCY

Many States To Hold Primary
Elections Which Will Show
Strength of Aspirants

MICHIGANDERS VOTE TODAY

NEW YORK, April 5.—This week will be the most important of the pre-convention campaign to date, according to political observers, who expect for the first time to get a definite line on the present comparative strength of the various candidates for the presidential nomination of both major parties.

The Republicans will hold state primaries and conventions as follows:

Monday — Michigan preferential primaries (30 delegates); Rhode Island convention (10 delegates)

Tuesday — Wisconsin preferential and direct primaries (28 delegates); New York direct primaries (85 delegates)

Wednesday — Georgia convention (17 delegates)

Democratic primaries and conventions include:

Monday — Michigan primary (30 delegates)

Tuesday — New York primary (90 delegates); Wisconsin primary (28 delegates); Philippine islands convention (6 delegates)

Thursday — North Carolina convention (24 delegates)

There are thus 173 Republican and 176 Democratic delegates involved. Of course many of these will be unpledged, but there are obvious means of determining the preferences of unpledged delegates if any exist.

Wood Delegates Lead
So far Major Gen. Leonard Wood has 57 delegates pledged to him; Gov. Frank O. Lowden has 12 and Senator Hiram Johnson has two. According to the claims and admissions of campaign managers the unstructured campaign managers the unstructured make the complete lineup to date:

Wood, 91; Lowden, 87; Judge Pritchard of North Carolina, 22; Gov. Allen of Kansas, 20, and Johnson, 2.

The Democratic lineup is far less comprehensive. It shows:

Instructed delegates—Senator Robert Owen of Oklahoma, 20; William J. Bryan, 10; James W. Gerard, 10; Herbert Hoover, 3.

Uninstructed delegates—Arizona 6; Iowa, 26; Maine, 12; Nevada, 6; New Hampshire, 5.

Of these unpledged delegates no one has undertaken to forecast their preferences with any degree of accuracy. Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, however, is generally conceded to have the advantage in Maine and Nevada, giving him 18 possible delegates.

Michigan Vote Important
William G. McAdoo is thought to have a good chance for Arizona's six. But, so far as the Democrats are concerned, there appears to be nothing definite to date concerning any of their unpledged delegates' inclinations.

How important the candidates themselves regard the Michigan primaries is shown by the intensive campaigns conducted there by them and their organizations. Michigan is looked upon as one of the pre-convention "pivotal" states. There are seven names on the Republican, five on the Democratic and one on the Socialist ticket. Hoover is on both the Republican and Democratic ballots.

New York has been the big enigma this year as regards both Republican and Democratic nominees. It is the one state where no candidate's organization is making claims in a very loud voice. The Wood people appear to be the most confident. Johnson is concentrating in a few cities, particularly the metropolis, and his backers say they will be satisfied if he makes a good showing in New York City, as it would be indicative of his disputed strength in the east.

New York is now McAdoo's home state and Palmer is well known here through his activities as alien property custodian, but prohibition appears to be a big issue for the Democrats in New York—as shown by

TROOPS THROWN AROUND CITIES

DUBLIN, April 5.—Over five hundred Sinn Feiners have been arrested in a new series of raids by police and military, following the Easter uprising, according to estimates furnished by Dublin Castle. Virtually all of the south of Ireland is under martial law. Cordons of troops have been thrown around Derry, Dublin, Cork, Limerick and other cities, while two British warships are laying in Kingston Harbor, just a few miles from Dublin. The north of Ireland is cut off completely from telegraph or telephone communication. In the west of Ireland chaos reigns. In one instance a band of seventeen hundred men marched through the community, confiscating over one thousand acres of land and parcelling out the farms and property. Owners were driven from their homes. The property damage resulting from the Easter uprising is estimated at $500,000 and it is said that the tax payers will be forced to pay this loss.

LONDON, April 4.—The Sinn Fein plan to destroy all Government records and put the Irish administration into confusion was put into operation last night when fires were started in official buildings all over Ireland.

At a late hour tonight this summary of the week end havoc throughout Ireland was given:

Sixty-one police stations were destroyed and 21 revenue offices raided and their contents burned.

Belfast was isolated from the rest of the world. The land wires and cables to England were cut off and the only means of communication was the telephone.

The Grand Central hotel, in which are located the labor and other departments and the Bank of Ireland, was entered during the night and a large number of documents were destroyed. The raiders then tried to burn buildings, but a fire brigade prevented this.

Three separate blazes were found in the income tax offices. The city postoffices and public buildings were under strong guard today. Dispatches this evening stated the city is calm and the authorities now have the situation in hand.

Attempts also were made to set fire to the Belfast custom house and to excise offices.

In every case fire was started by pouring gasoline over floors and furniture and then applying matches.

Most of the men who started the blazes were described as patriots. Some were masked and armed.

When communication with the Belfast region was partially restored last night it was discovered that a word of destruction had swept over the province of Ulster. Sinn Fein had in all parts of the province and had burned down or damaged many of the buildings and the telegraph and telephone lines.

Belfast itself tonight is still cut off from Dublin. At hand-derry men singing Republican songs out the house lines as firemen were trying desperately to save the revenue offices and the pension office from being burned to the ground.

The Irish Republic flag was hoisted wherever the conspirators carried out their work of destruction. At Queens-town Sinn Feiners raised the Republican colors on the flagstaff in front of the harbor commissioner's residence. They then cut the rope to prevent the removal of the flag.

MICHIGAN AND DELAWARE VIE WITH EACH OTHER IN POLITICAL WORLD

NEW YORK CITY, April 5.—While the one political eye is turned on Michigan today the other is anxiously cast towards Delaware. In Michigan it is expected that the strength of the various presidential candidates will be shown by popular preference. In Delaware the woman suffrage battle goes on unabated and a commanding as much national interest as a presidential contest. While the Michigan result and the Delaware situation are entirely unrelated they are equally important. First, the primary in Michigan will afford the first comprehensive comparison of candidates for the presidency of both major parties. Second, the final vote in Delaware on suffrage expected this week will show whether seventeen million women voters under state suffrage or about twenty seven million voters under federal suffrage will participate in the selection of a president this fall.

Delaware is a normally Republican state and if the state fails to ratify the suffrage amendment party leaders fear its effect on the women voters in suffrage states. Women are voting in Michigan today and will vote in Wisconsin and New York tomorrow.

LANSING, Mich., April 5.—Michigan voters were to signify their choices for the presidential nominations in a state-wide preference primary today.

All of the important Republican candidates for the nomination except Senator Warren G. Harding of Ohio, qualified for places on the ballot. The Republican candidates are: Hiram Johnson, California; Frank O. Lowden, Illinois; John J. Pershing, Nebraska; Leonard Wood, New Hampshire; Herbert C. Hoover, California; Miles F. Poindexter, Washington; William G. Simpson, Florida, Mich.

Wood and Lowden have both been conducting active campaigns in the state.

The Democratic candidates are: William Jennings Bryan, Nebraska; Edward I. Edwards, New Jersey; A. Mitchell Palmer, New York; William Gibbs McAdoo, New York; Herbert C. Hoover, California.

Eugene V. Debs is the only Socialist candidate.

He was elected in the neighboring state on a "wet" platform, thus incurring the open enmity of New Jersey as shown by Russia is an example of a republic that fell to pieces because of internal troubles and at a time when no enemy without could have overpowered her. She was not beaten by German forces; for Germany had no army that was a match for Russia at that time. The great masses of the Russian people, too ignorant to understand the nature of the poison that was administered to them by the wily emissaries of the German government, swallowed the sugar-coated virus that dethroned their reason and turned them into maddened beasts, seeking their own destruction. Thus the hope of the Russian republic fell, and the wholesale slaughter of those who possessed the intelligence to bring order out of chaos completed the destruction of the "hope of Europe." The recovery of Russia will be slow; because the mis-guided people have slain those who could have saved her from herself. No outside enemy could have accomplished by force what her own people did in the madness of their bolshevik insanity. The world is ready to help Russia when she awakens from her delirium; but, until that awakening comes, she must struggle alone with the dragon of bolshevism that is eating out her vitals.

FERTILIZERS FOR YOUR GARDEN

Manure is scarce in and around cities. Commercial fertilizers must be depended upon primarily for adding fertility to garden soils. It pays to use the best grade of commercial fertilizers. When the home gardener buys fertilizers he pays for nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash, and if he can secure the required amount of these elements in a small quantity of material, so much the better, as he will avoid the handling of a greater weight upon which freight and other costs have been paid. A fertilizer containing from 4 to 6 per cent. of nitrogen 8 to 10 per cent. of available phosphoric acid, and 3 or 4 per cent. potash is generally recommended for use on home gardens by specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

One pound to 30 feet of row is equivalent to an application of 500 pounds to the acre. One pound to 15 feet of row is equivalent to an application of 1,000 pounds to the acre, and an application of 1 pound to 8 feet of row is practically equivalent to 2,000 pounds of fertilizer to the acre.

Commercial fertilizers are high at present and no more than is absolutely necessary should be used. Care must also be taken in their application, as there is constant danger of burning the roots of the plants, especially where the fertilizers are applied directly in the rows. The best results are generally secured where the fertilizers are applied and raked in a few days before sowing the seeds or setting the plants. In this way they become more or less mixed with the soil and there will be little danger of doing the plants an injury.

In many sections of the country nitrate of soda is used as a stimulant to force the growth of the plants after they are started. Nitrate of soda is a concentrated fertilizer furnishing nitrogen, that element which makes the green and vigorous growth in plants, and should be used sparingly to avoid injury. The usual custom is to scatter a little (1 lb. to 100 ft.) nitrate of soda along the rows of plants and mix it with the soil by means of a hoe or rake. Another method is to dissolve a tablespoonful of the nitrate of soda in a pailful of water and use this solution for watering the plants taking care that only a small quantity of the water is applied around each plant. It is vastly better to make frequent light applications of the nitrate than to apply too much at one time.

Gum Arabic. Gum arabic naturally exudes from the bark of acacia Senegal, a tree native to north Africa, though other species of Acacia are drawn upon, however, yielding a slightly inferior product. Tragacanth is from shrubs of astragalus species native to Asia. While astragalus are common in western America none of them seem to be of value for tragacanth. The most shrubby local species is A. Drinking a Glass of Hot Water is a Splendid Habit

Cleanse and sweeten the system each morning and wash away poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. It flushes from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before eating more food.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a fine appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store, but is enough to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism an enthusiast on internal sanitation.

The Arab's Cloak.

The cloak the Arab wears is cut square. It is his universal and inseparable covering. It is his coat by day and his blanket by night. It was this cloak that in Old Testament times had been taken in pledge during the day. Otherwise the Semite would have had no covering when he slept. These abas, as they are called, are becoming popular in England.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says: "he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble."

CONSTITUTIONAL HEARINGS ARE AGAIN UNDERWAY

HARRISBURG, April 5. (United Press.)—The Pennsylvania Commission on Constitutional Revision and Amendment will reconvene here tomorrow. The Commission adjourned in February after completing the tentative draft of the new Constitution. During the adjournment printed copies of the tentative draft were sent to every member of the bar, large corporations, the press and others interested. These were studied preliminarily to the public hearings on the Commission's work which will be commenced tomorrow.

Any interested person may appear either in person or in writing to express his or her views. Under the plan of William Draper Lewis, secretary of the Commission, two sessions will be held tomorrow, three on Wednesday and one on Thursday. It is the consensus of opinion among the members that the entire work of the commission—that of redrafting the constitution after the public hearings into shape for presentation to the next legislature—will be finished before the summer months set in.

The hearings this week will be devoted each day to certain articles of the present constitution. Closely allied sections will also be discussed as they progress. This week they will be devoted chiefly to municipal articles. John Ihlder, of the Philadelphia Housing Association, will speak before the commission tomorrow on housing improvement and Director William S. Twining, also of Philadelphia, will speak on the financial provisions of the municipal article and home rule question. In the evening A. Leo Weil of the Voters' League, Pittsburgh, will be the principal speaker.

On Wednesday the discussion will be on the consolidation of city and county governments. Among the speakers who have signified their intention of speaking on this subject are Frederick J. Gruenberg and Thomas Raeburn White of Philadelphia. In the afternoon a representative of the Scranton Board of Trade will speak on mine caves and in the evening C. G. Hong, Philadelphia, will speak on proportional representation.

The second week's sessions will be devoted to judiciary and educational articles.

No limit will be placed on the length of talks before the Commission, but it is the belief of the members that none will be lengthy. Should a speaker bring forth points of law that should go into the constitution and which were overlooked in the tentative draft, they will soon find favor in the commission members and should he be wrong in his views, they he will quickly be shown where he is wrong by a member of the Commission, and therefore the length of the talks will be cut to a minimum, a member of the Commission said today.

About the Swingknife.

A swingknife is a wooden sword, 18 to 24 inches long and 8 to 10 inches broad, used to scrape the woody portion from flax, a handful of which hangs over a groove in the standing board known as the swingstock. Swingknives are still used in the manufacture of flax in parts of the Old World, but modern machinery has pretty generally displaced them.

It was ten times and Elly came to the table with soiled hands. Mother immediately told him to leave the table. "Why," said she, "you must be washed. The Aftermath of Flu

This is No. 1 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a competent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vicks' Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Your doctor will impress upon you that following recovery from the active stage of influenza, there often remains an inflamed, congested condition of the air passages—throat, larynx, bronchial tubes and lungs.

Frequently the cough hangs on—soreness of the chest persists—you take cold easily and there may be obstinate catarrh. This condition is slow to clear up and if neglected may favor the development of pneumonia, or later on, serious disease of the lungs.

Such cases should continue under the care of their physician—should exercise moderately in the open air—eat plenty of wholesome food—avoid overwork and sudden chills.

Nightly applications of Vicks' Vapo-Rub may help nature to complete the process of repair. Because Vicks acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vicks are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, thus bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vicks the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vicks Chemical Company, 231 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

CURWENSVILLE, PA.

This is to give Curwensville people the opportunity of securing this good bread at all times.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

The juvenile pupils who attended Sabbath school yesterday were made happy by receiving an Easter egg in token of their steady attendance during the year. Some members of the 'teen department were also remembered and came in for an egg. Rev. Collins preached his first sermon to his congregation here, and from what we can glean from those who heard his discourse, all seemed satisfied that the conference had chosen well and sent the right man to the right charge. Owing to the illness of Rev. Fletcher Biddle and family the new minister has not been able to get possession of the parsonage, as the condition of Mrs. Biddle has been of such a character as it was deemed advisable not to remove her until she was in a better physical condition for the trip to her new home at Renovo. The new man, however, will remain in town until he can move his household goods into the parsonage and take up housekeeping.

Squire James A. Caldwell, who has been making his home with a daughter at Tyrone this winter, came to Curwensville last Friday in order to spend Easter day with his son, Merritt A. Caldwell and his granddaughter, Mrs. Richard Lantz. Of course the Squire who loves children as he loves to play a social game of "cinch," did not forget to come loaded with Easter offerings for his great grandchild at the Lantz home.

Merchants tell us that their Easter trade this season far exceeded that of any Easter season for the ten years past. They all had a variety of stock, ranging from a candy egg up to real live bunnies, and the prices were not excessive either.

Some twenty-five or thirty Curwensville young people who are attending colleges and other schools in different parts of the state, were about all home spending their Easter vacation with their parents and friends.

Eggs are still slowly going down the ladder of scale price. Saturday eggs were offered on the streets at 49 cents per dozen and did not find ready sale at that. A little over a week ago this meat fruit was soaring around 65 cents per dozen. One fellow, who could not see the policy for cheaper eggs, lugged a large tin full around town nearly all day asking 30 cents for the same and swore before he would take less he would lug them back home, a distance of about five miles. He was as good as his word and his cargo of hen fruit returned home with him.

Considerable progress was made toward excavating for the walls of the new blouse factory last week. The average run of wages will be paid to both laborer and mechanic. Those who have the construction of the building in charge, believe that within the next three months they will be able to turn the building over to those who are to occupy it.

If Curwensville people are determined to have a Community Home why not purchase the Park hotel, which can be purchased and refitted for that purpose at a far less cost than it would be to purchase a site and build a building from the ground up? The Park is centrally located, has grounds for lawn tennis, lots of room for croquet and swimming pool and a large garage, to say nothing of ample room in the inside of the building for everything that is necessary to make up a Community Home. Or better still tackle the "Pee-Wee's nest" proposition and convert it into a first class amusement park.

The Messrs. Leather Brothers, who own considerable real estate in Curwensville borough and close vicinity, have come forward and believing that the town now has an industrial future far superior to anything heretofore attempted, have offered to donate to the Industrial and Community Association five town lots, located at the upper end of Ridge avenue. There are a half dozen other men who are offering town lots for sale, and according to the thinking of a good many of the town's citizens, it would be a good proposition if they would follow in the footsteps of the Leather brothers. It would not only facilitate the sale of their other lands adjacent to the borough line, but would have a tendency of starting a building boom along the line of tenement houses. More dwelling houses is what Curwensville wants now more than anything else. We cannot expect industries to come into the town and locate unless there are some provisions made for taking care of the people who come here to work in them. It was printed in the home paper some weeks ago that a realty company had been formed by local capital and that the erection of houses would be commenced at once. There has been no stir made in that direction as yet so far as we are able to discover.

Illini tribe of Red Men elected last Wednesday evening a full corps of competent men from their ranks to fill the official chairs, of that lodge during the ensuing term. The raising of the chiefs will take place on Wednesday evening of this week, when the Progress will give a full account.

Becoming a sailor in the navy of the United States did not appeal very strongly to the Curwensville youths or young men, as the recruiting officer who spent several days in town last week failed to secure one single applicant.

TRINITY METHODISTS HAD SPLENDID EASTER SERVICES

The large congregation at Trinity church yesterday morning enjoyed one of the finest services the church has had in years. The choir rendered a fine program of music. The sermon presented the resurrection as fundamental in the Christian faith. The decorations consisted of a profusion of ferns and Easter flowers tastefully arranged.

The closing moments were very impressive as a splendid group of people were received into the fellowship of the church, welcomed by the pastor and members of the official board.

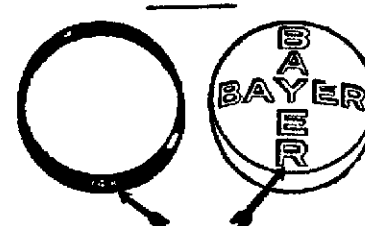

At the evening service the Easter Cantata entitled "The New Life" was given by the choir, the soloists being Mrs. Hursh Johnson, Albert Kennard and L. W. Lawrence. A beautiful piece of music, finely rendered, was the verdict of a delighted congregation.

"Don't Forget Your Umbrellas!"

"It was a rainy morning, and most of the Schoolmaster's fellow-passengers, including his seat-mate, had umbrellas. As the train pulled into the Grand Central Terminal, the trainman called, 'Don't forget your umbrellas!'"

"The Schoolmaster doesn't know whether the trainman called this thoughtful admonition on his own initiative, or whether he was acting on company instructions, but he does know that his seat-mate turned to him, and with a pleased smile exclaimed, 'I like to travel on this New York Central!'"

Good service in the end becomes a problem of personnel. We are proud of our men, from the bottom to the top of the list. We pick them judiciously, train them carefully, advance them for merit and experience, trying always to have the big man in the important job and the right men everywhere. SULPHUR CLEARS

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

"LISTEN LESTER" AT THE DRIGGS THEATRE

Coming to the Driggs next Thursday evening is "Listen Lester," a musical comedy which Mr. John Cort is presenting with the entire New York cast, chorus, production and special company orchestra, by Harry L. Cort, George E. Stoddard and Harold O'lob. This production forms a happy combination of a rocking kind calculated to catch the public fancy. That it will also hold the fancy is proven by the fact that this play ran for an entire year at the Knickerbocker Theatre in New York.

The action takes place at Palm Beach, Florida, which Colonel Dodge has gone accompanied by his daughter Mary, to escape from a woman whom he had been courting in New York and who now threatens him with a breach of promise suit if he does not pay her heart balm. At the same hotel is a Mrs. Mumm, and while waiting the arrival of Jack, her young fiancée, she falls in love with the Colonel, who reciprocates her affections.

There is a flip hotel clerk, a decidedly fresh porter named Lester, a female detective, a package of letters and all sorts of complications that comprise the real story and which are straightened out finally in a satisfactory manner.

Mr. Cort has retained the entire New York cast of funmakers for this attraction which includes Mayme Gehue, Jean Thomas, Virginia Watson, Luella Davis, Cecil Williams, Florence DeBar, Frances Anderson, Florida Bellaire, Irving Brokes, Joseph Mack, Bert Gardner, Gus Shy, John L. Lyons, Murray Hart, Mark Thompson, Andrew Leigh, all adding to the general gaiety, and brings to Clearfield the damiest, danciest chorus ever seen on any stage.

The score contains song hits that are being whistled and hummed universally, the customing is effective and the staging artistic in every detail.

FIGHTING BROTHER-LOVE
DEFIES FINANCIAL RUIN
TO SAVE NAME OF DEAD

Brotherly love, as the powerful force that sends a father to an early grave and controls the destinies of a prominent New York family is one of the appealing elements in "Her Kingdom of Dreams," starring Anita Stewart and which will be seen at the Driggs theatre, commencing Tuesday.

Greatest Cast Ever Assembled

Probably the greatest cast ever assembled for a motion picture was placed under the direction of Marshall Neilan for the production of this picture. Among the stars included are: Anna Q. Nilsson, Kathryn Williams, Tully Marshall, Mahlon Hamilton, Thomas Santachi, Spottiswood Aitken, Wesley Barry, Ralph Graves, Thomas Jefferson, James Neill and Edwin Stevens.

As Judith Rutledge, Miss Stewart plays the role of a country girl who has idealized the life and surroundings of the large cities. As a stenographer she is involved in the family affairs of her employer, the wealthy Mr. Warren, whose death results from a violent argument with his son Fred. On his deathbed the elder Warren makes a final request that his son marry Judith.

Their marriage is followed by a series of business and domestic misunderstandings which cram the picture with unusually interesting situations.

CLEARFIELD GIRL IN MAY DAY FETE

Miss Betty Weaver, of Clearfield, will take an important part in the May Day fete to be given by the undergraduates of Bryn Mawr on May 7 and 8 for the benefit of the college $2,000,000 endowment. She will take the part of Flute in a "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

This is the fifth of the old English festivals which Bryn Mawr has made so distinctly its own. It was first given in 1900.

May Day is an event to which Bryn Mawr women and their friends go from all over the country. Special cars are run from Chicago and New York and other large cities, and for two days the college is a picturesque place with its many quaint costumes, and hundreds of spectators. Its old Gothic architecture makes it an unusually fitting place for such a revel, which is by far the largest and most successful of its kind.

The festival this year will include a pageant, May-Pole dances, old English country and Morris dances, six Elizabethan plays and two masques. It is run almost entirely by the undergraduates.

BARRISCALE IS BACK IN WINNER

"Beckoning Roads" Gives Her One Of The Big Parts Of Career

Again at the Liberty Theatre, motion picture audiences have opportunity to see Bessie Barriscale, one of the most welcome delineators of society and modern life roles. The newest feature from Miss Barriscale's own studios, "Beckoning Roads," which the made for Robertson-Cole opens at the Liberty Theatre tonight. Harold Knight, Kenny Thorn, W.

"Beckoning Roads" is based on "The Call of Life" by Jeanne Judson, which appeared in the Red Book Magazine as a serial. It tells the story of Marquita Shay, a girl of the Canadian Northwest, who is pushed into the swift hard battle of New York life, after a heart-breaking series of unhappy episodes which greets her arrival in America. How she plays a master hand against the man who caused her unhappiness is entertainingly told in this vivid picture of modern American life.

Niles Welch plays opposite Miss Barriscale. Joseph Downing has the part of a Wall Street swindler, and Gloria Holt, a child actress, has an important role. Howard Hickman directed the picture.

The Hangar.

Many people think that the airplane word "hangar" is an affection and is the late adoption of a French word. A look into the Standard dictionary will reveal the fact that Thackeray uses the word and that it means a shed, not primarily a place to hang a dirigible.—Hartford Courant.

And the Reverse?

Bandages have been invented containing insulated wires to take current from storage batteries or lighting circuits so that they can be kept warm indefinitely.

Don't Do Not Doing Thanks.

That skunks will not lose is the testimony of E. L. Dendow of Canton township. He came upon one in the act of moving his liver enough to bring out the boss, and when they came out the skunk ate them.
